

Ribeirao Pires

This is my town Ribeirao Pires.

There are around 160 thousand people in my town. Ribeirao Pires is a small town in the south west of Brazil, 80 km from Sao Paulo. The mountains and the Santos's Hill are the nicest scenery in Ribeirao Pires. I lived in the north which is the most expensive area. The most important industries in my town are furniture and flowers, and agriculture too. I went to the university. In Ribeirao Pires people like football and five a side football is the most popular sport. The Carrefour and the Coop are the most important shops in my town. My town has the nick name of "Perola da Serra", which means "The Pearl of the Hill".
