

MY TOWN

I come from Larache, a small city in the north of Morocco. The population of Larache is 180,000. Larache is 380 miles from Rabat, on the north coast. In the east there are mountains. In the west there is the beach. The most expensive areas to live in is City Centre .

The main industry in my city is fishing.

There are religious and state primary and secondary schools and a college in Larache. In my area there are some small local shops selling food, businesses and Commerce. Hasania Larache is the football team in my town

Larache is wonderful. The weather is beautiful .the people are very friendly
